

CRISIS IN THE CRIB: Saving Our Nation's Babies

Documentary Screening and Reception

Friday, November 13, 2009 from 6pm-8pm

University of Pennsylvania, School of Nursing Auditorium
418 Curie Blvd., Philadelphia, PA 19104

Join us for a presentation of Crisis in the Crib: Saving Our Nation's Babies, a special 30-minute documentary on African American health.

The documentary highlights the high rates of infant mortality in the United States, the significant disparities affecting racial and ethnic minority populations and the outreach and educational efforts of the Office of Minority Health Preconception Peer Educators on their college campus and in the community.

ADMISSION IS FREE!

Refreshments will be served.
